the National City Bank-Riverside Drive Site Bought for Improvement.

The Bank of Montreal, which has a branch here, bought yesterday the new eleven story building at Nos. 84 and 66 Wall street from the Fifth Avenue and Eighteenth Street Realty Company, of which Henry Corn is president. The property is just west of Pearl street diagonally opposite the old Custom House, now the home of the National City Bank. At present it contains stores as well as offices, but it will be altered at once.

Plans are being arranged for a vault to cost $75,000, and as soon as this has been built the bank will move to Wall street. It is now in the building of Redmond & Co. at No. 31 Pine street, where it has a lease of the second floor with eleven years to run. This lease, which was made about three years ago when the building was erected, will be dis-

was bought by the realty company about four years ago from Charles A. Gould. The building was erected from plans by Maynicka & Franke. It covers a plot 50.10x90 and is in the same block with the buildings of the Seamen's Bank for Savings, the Central Trust Company, the Bank of New York, Kuhn, Loeb & Co. and the New York Life Insurance and
